

CALLING ALL PASSIONATE YOUTH WHO ARE INTERESTED IN LEADERSHIP AND SERVICE

Victorious Attitudes for Everyday Life, Inc. (VAEL) an educational non-profit is searching seven new youth leaders from middle and high schools across Baltimore Metropolitan Area to serve on VAEL's Youth Leadership Advisory Board (YLAB). Applications are being accepted now through January 12, 2019 at www.victoriousattitudes.org.

YLAB was formed in 2016 and is currently comprised of 13 innovative and passionate youth (ages 13-18). They are charged to advise VAEL on youth programming, manage youth events, and serve as VAEL's ambassador. YLAB serves as a platform for youth to elevate their voice and become drivers of their own ideas from inception to implementation. In addition to managing their own projects, they gain intense leadership and public speaking skills. These training builds their leadership capacities and commitment to community service while inspiring other youths to build their personal, academic, and social capacities.

This coming 2019, we are seeking thirteen new members to serve on the board. YLAB offers new board members an opportunity to participate in a leadership development programs, meet influence community leaders, strengthens their commitment to service and volunteerism, receive service learning hours, attend trips, and inspire other youths.
